A de-risked financial vehicle disguised as a massive sci-fi franchise

The battle for the ultimate commodity—youth and the human mind

The Setting

A hyper-charged, near-future metropolis completely dominated by corporate greed and underground gladiatorial sports.

The Catalyst

A tribe of teenage outcasts and urban pirates—operating from the rooftops of skyscrapers—unlock real-world kinetic powers through sonic experiments and altered states.

The Stakes

A ruthless empire, desperate to steal their youth and weaponize their abilities, ignites a silent war in the neon-lit streets.

A thematic collision between organic power and engineered control
